

Resilience Measurement, Evidence and Learning Conference 2018

November 12-15, Jung Hotel, New Orleans, Louisiana, U.S.A.

	08.00	09.00	09.30	11.00	11.30	13.00	14.00	15.30	16.00	18.00
Nov 12	FIELD TRIP: Interpretive Tour of New Orleans with Richard Campanella					ARRIVAL & REGISTRATION			Welcome Reception (18.00-19.30)
						RMEL CoP Member Business Meeting
DAY 1 Nov 13	REGISTRATION	WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION Robin Forman (Tulane University) Veronica Olazabal (The Rockefeller Foundation) Dorcas Robinson (RMEL CoP)	KEYNOTE PLENARY (09.30-11.00) Resilience Measurement: Where are we and where do we need to be? Moderator: Tim Frankenberger (TANGO International) Tiffany Griffin (USAID – C4R) Greg Collins (USAID) Tim Waites (DFID) Luca Russo (FAO)	COFFEE BREAK	SESSION 1 (11.30-13.00) Financial Inclusion, Risk Management and Resilience: What do we know, and what more must we learn? Climate Information Services as a Source of Livelihoods Resilience What's Gender got to do with Resilience? Research Design with Resilience in Mind Resilience Measurement in Practice: Lessons from the Zurich Flood Resilience Alliance	LUNCH (13.00-14.15) KEYNOTE PLENARY USAID-REAL (45mins) Moderator: Tom Spangler (Save the Children) Tim Frankenberger (TANGO International) Tiffany Griffin (USAID C4R) Maja Persson (Save the Children) Karine Garnier (USAID) Jon Kurtz (Mercy Corps)	SESSION 2 (14.30-16.00) Error and Bias in Mobile Surveys for Measuring Resilience Evidence to Action in Different Settings Climate Change and Resilience Resilience for All? Working Towards Inclusive & Equitable Resilience Programs and Measurement	16.00 COFFEE BREAK	SESSION 3 (16.15-17.45) Supporting Resilience through Social Capital Resilience and Psychosocial Factors: The Relationship and Measurement Resilience Assessments Design Ongoing Work on Resilience Measurement in Different Settings	WORLD CAFÉ & NETWORKING (18.00-19.30)
DAY 2 Nov 14	REGISTRATION	DAY ONE SUMMARY Tim Frankenberger (TANGO International)	SESSION 4 (09.30-11.00) Lessons from BRACED: Results of different approaches to resilience measurement across 15 countries How Do Theory, Measurement and Learning Interact to Inform Practice? Case Studies: Somalia The Economics of Resilience Returns: When 1 + 1 > 2 Translating Resilience Assessment into Strong Program Design	COFFEE BREAK	SESSION 5 (11.30-13.00) Health and Resilience Resilience and Gender in Agricultural-Learning from Oxfam Interventions Resilient Evaluations Market Systems: Resilience Measurement Approaches Case Studies: Syria	LUNCH	SESSION 6 (14.00-15.30) Measuring Resilience in an Urban Setting New Orleans City Resilience Taking Resilience to Scale; Implementing Science-Guided, Capacity-Building Initiatives Case Studies: Uganda and South Sudan Innovations and Measurement: New Approaches	COFFEE BREAK	KEYNOTE PLENARY (16.00-17.30) Investing in Businesses Nathaniel Matthews (GRP) Will Goode (Arup/Resilience Shift) Veronica Olazabal (The Rockefeller Foundation) Dominic Bea (Guggenheim Partners Investment Management) Meredith Mallory (Agriculture and Economic Growth, Tetra Tech)	SUMMARY (17.30-18.00) Nancy MacPherson Strategic Advisor (RMEL CoP)
DAY 3 Nov 15	REGISTRATION	WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION RMEL CoP Director, Co-Chairs, and Members	Synthesizing the Evidence Applying RMEL to Resilience Practice	COFFEE BREAK	Skills-Building Session Applying RMEL to Resilience Practice (cont.)	LUNCH	ROUND TABLE: From Practice to Policy and Investment (14.00-15.30)	FORMAL THANKS (15.30-15.45)	Working Session (16.00-17.00)
Resilience Shift Workshop (by invitation): Global Infrastructure Basel (GIB) and Arup										